The interests of the people are shoved saide, and the bungry pack of effice seekers are ronping the machine.

The Legislature has spent much time over the resolutions denouncing our Congressional delegation, much to the edification and delight of the two or three score of men who expect to step into the places to be vacated by these members.

An outcry bes been raised egainst the State Tressurer and other efficers, origipating with the shyster, Dan. Adams, because the State Treasurer preferred another bank to his for depositing the State funds. This has been kept up by his osition, and at the same time had State paid screechers, and an investigation has has been set on foot, headed by a personal enemy of the Treasurer; and now that anything of the sort has transpired; and impeachment is talked of, not only of the Treasurer, of other officers. Thus, it that irresistibly leads one to the opinion with spite work, personal entity, and the expectation of several hundred persons of being chosen to fill the offices to be vacated, there is a good deal of noise over There is something that sounds so wonimpeachment—but it will amount to no derfully like the tones of Pecksniff.

Resolutions have been fiercely discussed, notifying the President that Hugh Ewing following terrific despatch was telegraphis not a citizen of Kansas, demanding his ed over the country, from Leavenworth: removal from the position of Minister to the Hagne, and asking that the place be given to some starving soul in Kansas.

Then, the subject of dividing the State into three Congressional Districts, is causing much uncasiness.
